DESCRIPTION

The HeartSine Samaritan 350T AED trainer is easy to use and guides the user through all steps in the resuscitation process without actually delivering a shock. The remote control makes it possible to make real-time adjustments to the scenarios during a training. In this way, a trainer can offer a real-life training experience. The trainer offers six scenarios and can be used with any common CPR manikin. An oversized PadPak allows for easy storage of trainer electrodes after use.

The trainer comes with:

- Samaritan 350T trainer
- Carrying bag with two compartments
- Two sets of training electrodes
- Trainer PadPak
- Remote control including AAA batteries
- Adapter for charging the trainer
- Manual
